

Buehler celebrates 20 consecutive years of ISO certification

JUNE 15, 2018

Lake Bluff, Ill.-based Buehler, an ITW Company and manufacturer of industrial and scientific equipment and supplies for materials analysis, is celebrating 20 years of successful ISO certification with DQS Inc. global certification company.

Most recently Buehler achieved ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 14001:2015 certifications. The company develops material applications and products for automotive, aerospace, medical, and electronics manufacturers.
